It is the policy of the State Board for Technical and Comprehensive Education that individuals with supervisory or management authority (to include State Board and local Area Commission members) may not cause the employment, appointment, promotion, reassignment, transfer or advancement of a family member to any position (FTE, temporary and/or temporary grant), or participate in an action relating to discipline under his/her direct supervision or significant influence or control, any such person related or connected as defined below or otherwise specified in the Department of Administration’s Division of State Human Resources (DSHR) Regulations. This policy applies to those having common law or non-traditional relationships either cohabitation or significant interdependence.

Family member means an individual who is (a) the spouse, parent, grandparent, child, grandchild, brother/sister, mother-in-law, father-in-law, son-in-law, and daughter-in-law or (b) a member of the individual’s immediate family. Immediate family is further defined by the State of South Carolina as:

1. a child residing in a candidate’s, public official’s, public member’s, or public employee’s household;
2. a spouse of a candidate, public official, public member, or public employee, or an individual claimed by the candidate, public official, or public employee’s spouse as a dependent for income tax purposes.

Disclosure

Employees are expected to disclose relationships covered by this policy to the Human Resources Office and their supervisor whenever the relationships come into existence. Employees have up to 90 days after marriage (common law or non-traditional relationships either cohabitation or significant interdependence) to find employment in either a suitable unit within the agency, if possible, or outside the agency. An employee’s failure to disclose such information can lead to discipline up to and including termination.
