I. General Information

A. Purpose

This procedure was developed to comply with policy 8-2-109 and the English Fluency in Higher Education Act (S.C. Code Ann. § 59-103-160). The purpose of this procedure is to define methods to ensure that all faculty assigned to full-time equivalent (FTE) positions and adjunct faculty, whose first language is other than English and who teach one or more credit courses, possess adequate proficiency in both the written and spoken English language and that student complaints regarding an instructor's English fluency are appropriately addressed.

B. Exclusions

This procedure does not apply to the following instructional settings: continuing education courses; student participatory and activity courses such as clinics, studios, and seminars; special arrangement courses, such as individualized instruction and independent study courses; courses designed to be taught predominantly in a foreign language; and, courses taught by visiting faculty.

II. Procedural Guidelines

A. Applicants for FTE and adjunct faculty vacancies will proceed through the college's normal screening process with assessment based on standard job-related criteria to include perceived written and oral communication abilities.

B. If an applicant becomes a finalist for a faculty position but his/her written or oral English proficiency is judged by the screening official(s) to require further evaluation, the applicant will be referred to an English Fluency Evaluation Committee, hereafter referred to as the committee. The committee will ensure that an English fluency evaluation is made on the basis of previously agreed upon criteria developed with faculty and student input. The applicant will be evaluated by the committee through the performance of at least the following minimum proficiency exercises:

1. Providing written response of at least one (1) page to an essay question concerning either teaching methods or the academic discipline.
2. Conducting an oral instructional presentation related to the subject area, with at least half of the presentation using the lecture method.

C. The function of the committee may be incorporated into an already established committee but may include representatives from the English or Developmental Studies departments, the administration, the college human resource office, as well as representatives of appropriate race and sex groups. The committee will ensure that appropriate procedures are used to provide a favorable environment for the exercises, as well as controls and security to ensure that the exercises completed by the applicant(s) are independent and original work. Candidates must be judged by committee consensus as proficient in both exercises prescribed in Section B above.
